Medical Spanish for Healthcare Professionals

How often do you feel frustrated, when trying to care for a Spanish speaking patient?

You are trying to communicate well. The patient is trying. Family members might even be chiming in. But...the gap remains and you are apprehensive that important information is lost in translation.

It's time to brush off your dusty Spanish skills and focus on medical conversations you really need. This course is for those who have a basic foundation of Spanish and are interested in expanding vocabulary that will be immediately beneficial in a multitude of healthcare situations.

Bridge the communication gap with this intensive program, designed specifically for busy healthcare professionals like you who are ready to learn Spanish in an effective, non-threatening experience.

Imagine being able to apply conversational phrases to communicate so much more effectively with your Spanish speaking patients. Ultimately, you will improve clinical outcomes, reduce communication errors, potentially avoid medication errors and support patient satisfaction. Along the way, you'll also ease your own worries, as you feel more confident in the communication you can incorporate into practice.
